Does over mean it's over
Until we run into each other again
On and off, hot and cold, back and forth
According to the mood we're in
(We're back in bed again)

Oh oh,oh oh
We never seem to get to the end
Oh oh,oh oh
We can't ever say never again
Tell me what does over mean

Does it mean that it's over
No more us that we want
Why can't we say goodbye
Why do we go back everytime
We begin where we end
This is where we came in
If we're gonna move in
We need a new word for over

I remember when over ment you felt
Real bad and cut up photographs
Never wanna see the son of a
Back with you again
Break up on a sunday
Back on monday
Ignoring everything that I said

We never practice what we preach
We're both guilty of being weak
Why say it's over when it ain't over
Dysfunctionally raw
Emotionally backed up against the door
I don't trust us anymore
What's the meaning of over

Make up,break up,make up again,
Break up,make up,break up again.....

Tell me when it's over baby

Said it so many times
There's no reason, no rhyme
Why can't we say goodbye
Why do we go back everytime
We begin where we end
This is where we came in
If we're gonna move on
