Sometimes when I feel
Like I'm stuck inside my mind
You're understanding
And you give me space and time

You see the real me
Lovin' me for who I am
Always there for me
I never have to pretend

Let me figure it out on my own
You never tell me what to do
You just give me room to grow

Even if I try to reach too high
I know that I'll always be alright
Even if I fall I won't fall too far
Cos' your love carries me

Sometimes when I feel
I'm being criticised
I can always find
Compassion in your eyes
I could have all the money in the world
You'd still mean more to me
Cos' your love makes me richer than most

Even if I try to reach too high
I know that I'll always be alright
Even if I fall I won't fall too far
Cos' your love carries me

Even though I tend to be dramatic
You calm me down
And clear away the static
No matter what in life I may achieve
Could never mean more
Than your belief in me

Cos' I'm not always gonna be right
And I'm always gonna reach too high
Even though my life keeps changing
I know you'll always be by my side

Even if I try to reach too high
I know that I'll always be alright
Even if I fall I won't fall too far
Cos' your love carries me

Even though I tend to be dramatic
You calm me down
And clear away the static
No matter what in life I may achieve
Could never mean more
Than your belief in me
