She's in need of a second chance
A different song, to a different dance
She just doesn't understand
Herself
She says she is giving up
She says that life, just isn't good enough
And she's upset
With herself
(Chorus)
But she heard my voice on the radio
She sings every word she knows
Baby, you're not alone tonight
I'm still here with you by your side
(Verse 2)
The pieces might not fit the same
There might be something that can't be replaced
She's still having trouble
With herself
She says she's sorry
She says it over and over again
She's still having trouble
Trying to comprehend
(Chorus)
(Verse 3)
She screams don't forget me
She's still searching for sympathy
She has no passion, she has no heart
Everything she has just falls apart
Her faith dies, but the truth remains
Nothing will ever be the same
She's screaming out
She's screaming for help
Tonight
Tonight
(Chorus)
