Now pretty girl just hold on tight
You're gonna make it through this night
No, you're not gonna lose this fight
Cause everything is gonna be alright

Now take a second let your heart slow down
You're not alone, just look around
All these hands held out to you
Helping guide your way on through

Take my hand
And grip it tight

Look at me, just hold on tight
We're gonna make it through this night
No we're not gonna lose this fight
You and I are gonna be alright
If we just hold on tight

Now baby girl, relax and breathe
I'm right here, and I promise not to leave
I'll stay right here by your side
Let it out, don't let it stay inside

Now take a second let our hearts slow down
We're not alone, just look around
All these hands held out to you
Helping guide your way on through

Take a hand
Everybody
And grip it tight

Everybody just hold on tight
We're gonna make it through this night
And no you're not gonna lose this fight
Cause everything is gonna be alright

Don't and wish you did, or do and wish you hadn't?
Live life for right now, don't focus on what's happened.
Walk with your head held high
Don't and wish you did, or do and wish you hadn't?

Live life in the moment, oh and not in what has happened.

Don't shine less than the stars in the sky

Now everybody just hold on tight
We're gonna make it through this night
And no we're not gonna lose this fight
Cause everything is gonna be alright

Now everybody just hold on tight
