I'll reach out my hand if you promise to take it
I'll accept your love if you promise not to fake it
I'll give you my heart if you promise not to break it
I know what we have is special there's no way to mistake it.

Baby it's you
Who I wanna see when I wake up in the morning
Baby it's you
Who's voice I want to fall asleep to at night
Baby
I know that we could make it if we try
You know that you don't have to be shy
I know you know that you could be
My only everything

I'll never let go if you never want me to
I may be a lovebird, but at least I'm flying with you
Don't close those eyes when you know you're scared
Cause you know that I'll always be there

Baby it's you
Who I wanna see when I wake up in the morning
Baby it's you
Who's voice I want to fall asleep to at night
Baby
I know that we could make it if we try
You know that you don't have to be shy
I know you know that you could be
My only everything

Baby it's me
Who'll make you're wildest dreams come true
Love you for whatever you do
Just remember that I'll always be the one for you
Just like we always knew

Baby it's you
Who I wanna see when I wake up in the morning

Baby it's you
Who I wanna see when I wake up in the morning

Baby it's you
Who's voice I want to fall asleep to at night
Baby
I know that we could make it if we try
You know that you don't have to be shy
I know you know that you could be
My only...
Baby it's you
Who I wanna see when I wake up in the morning
Baby it's you
Who's voice I want to fall asleep to at night
Baby
I know that we could make it if we try
You know that you don't have to be shy
I know you know that you could be
My only everything
