We could walk in the park for a while Hold eachother still
We could hold eachother by the fire
Stay away from the chill
We could sit under stars, we could watch planes and cars
As long as I'm with you here
We can walk in the park for a while
As long as I'm with you dear

I'll take you as high as the sky lets me
Love knows no out of range
Now we're in it to win it, and no one can stop us
And that'll never change
Because nothing's impossible except the impossible
And I wouldn't bet on that
Now we're in it to win it, and no one can stop us
And that'll never change

So promise me you'll still love me
When the clouds and moons part the sky
So promise me you'll still love me
Until the day that I die
So promise me you'll still love me
For everything that I am
So promise me you'll still love me
And take strong hold of my hand
So promise me
So promise me
So promise me
So promise me
So promise me

We could sit under stars, we could watch planes and
cars
As long as I'm with you here
Walk in the park for a while
As long as I'm with you dear
