You said it yourself
There's no way to put this nicely
I'm still gonna give it a shot

You got me tongue-tied
But I still gotta follow through
Part your lips wide
Tell me what you think we should do

What's the point if you're already done with me?
What's the point if you're already done with me?

You said it yourself
There's no way to put this nicely
I'm still gonna give it a shot

I might be tongue-tied
But I have so much left to say
Don't turn your backside
Let me explain, don't walk away

What's the point if you've already given up on me?
What's the point if you've already given up on me?

What starts with you and ends with me?
This outspoken tragedy
We got ourselves into quite the mess
What starts with me and ends with you?
An apology long overdue
So I'll be waiting for you to confess

You said it yourself
There's no way to put this nicely
But I still gave it my best shot
