I can't climb a mountain,
Or sail the seven seas.
No one else may know my name,
But my friends and family.
I won't go down in history, doin some great deed,
But knowin I'm the man you love,
Is all I'll ever need.

Chorus:

My greatest success is loving you.
My finest hour, will last my whole life through.
If I fail at everything else, I know one thing is true,
My greatest success is loving you.

I've searched a lifetime,
To find a love like this.
And I could see forever,
When I first kissed your lips.
I may not have a mansion,
Or diamonds on my hands.
As long as your here by my side,
I'm the richest man.

Chorus:
