"Hush Hush"

Pain in her laughter
There are truths in her words

Hush hush, keep quiet

Nobody knows
She keeps it a secret
To keep it all inside makes it worse

Hush hush, keep quiet

Nobody knows
She's not bitter, bitter, bitter though it hurts
She's like this burning flame that tries to hide when it gets to her

Should I take her into my life?
Show her my world
No, it's not me who's aching

So I let her
Hush, hush, keep quiet
