Throwin' stones out in the ocean
Doesn't make a sound
When the waves are rollin' in
You've been thrown out in the ocean
Where your dreams can drown

Can't find your own way in
I told you how its been
If only I was wrong

Does it make you sad?
Cause it makes me sad
Every time you wash up on the shore
All alone, once again
Does it make you sad?
Cause it makes me sad
When I see you fighting to stay on solid ground
Your splash don't make a sound

Right outside the circle
Where you're looking in
Invisible but real
Waiting for a way to open
You'll do anything
No matter how it feels

Can't find you own way in
I told you how it's been
If only I was wrong

Does it make you sad?
Cause it makes me sad
Every time you wash up on the shore
All alone, once again
Does it make you sad?
Cause it makes me sad
When I see you fighting to stay on solid ground
Your splash don't make a sound
