Stick 'em up baby reach for the sky. Here's something you might like to try. I know a place that's far from here. Where the squares they won't come near. How far! How far! How far baby! How far can too far go? You'll be the queen of the tractor pull. In your training gear you'll break all the rules. I like it tough and I don't talk my kicks. If I had a hammer I'd show you some tricks. How far! How far! How far baby! How far can too far go? I know a place that's far from here. Where the squares they won't come near. A smell of honey...a squallow of brine. Let's whoop it up have a real bad time. How far! How far! How far baby! How far can too far go?
