Now is time for the revloution
Teh revolution against the world
No more lies
No more ditching bitching and moaning
This soul has sufferd enough
With the twisted games people played
This soul isn't gonna take it anymore
Its time for the revoulation
The revolution against the world
Form the soul twisted to evil
The blood running hotter then hell
The soul transformed into a hells angle
Pure evil pure hate pure anarky
Its time to walk the fallen
Let our voices be herd
If not thses twisted souls
Will jump out and attack
Attack the happy and the living
In everyway they seem fit
In anyway i seem fit
Im the leader of the fallen
The chosen one to lead the revolution
The revolution against the world
So stand out and let yourself
Be herd for once
Be herd
Lead the revolution
Lead teh army of twisted souls
Lead teh to battle
And fight for evil
Fight for teh chosen one
Fight for me
Fight for the twisted souls
Teh blood running hotter then hell
The souls transfromed in to Hells angles
Teh rejection we all feel
No more we say
For this is the revolution
The revolution against the world
