There's a peg on the line
It is hanging on to clothes
There's a grape on the vine
So here the story goes

I'm a peg on that line
And I am holding on to your love
With feelings entwined
And it's you I had to shove

I'm in love with two girls and in fact; it's too real to just denounce
In shame I pushed you away...
I pushed you away...pushed you away

My needs today I find in separate lives
My baby knows where I go
Out of my mind

There's talk in the bush
And I hear the sparrow sing
When I get too close to it
My ears start to ring

Am I the talk of the town?
And a cause to shake the head
I am so in love with this world
I just wish I was dead
Wish I was dead

But again I awake to start another day
I look to my dreams to find out
I live my life this way

My needs today, I find in separate lives
My baby knows where I go
Out of my mind
Out of my mind
