I wrote this song so you would think of me
When you lay down at night
And you turn out the light
You should know I always think of you
And you'll be on my mind
Baby 'till the end of time

You know we've seen our way through thick and thin
And it seems our love's a little stronger
And it's gonna last a little longer
And baby you know you are my best friend
And I feel I gotta know
I wanna tell you I don't want this feeling to end

I wrote this song so you would think of me
(Think of me)
When you lay down at night
(When you lay down)
And you turn out the light
You should know I always think of you
(Think of you)
And you'll be on my mind
Baby 'till the end of time

Now honey you should know how you make me feel
What ya do to me God I can't believe
You will always be the one
That I can never run from
So just promise you will always think of me
When my time has come and you're the only one
When you lay down at night
And you turn out the light

I wrote this song so you would think of me
(Won't you think of me)
When you lay down at night
(When you lay down at night)
And you turn out the light
You should know I always think of you
(You're always on my mind)
And you'll be on my mind
Baby till the end of time

Do you think of me?
Because I think about you
And you know I do
So let's run away just me and you
And we can talk about love forever
And spend the rest of our lives together
Cause Lord knows your a dream come true
And you will always be my lover
And there will never be another

I wrote this song so you would think of me
(Think of me)
When you lay down at night
(When you're laying down at night)
And you turn out the light
(And you're all alone)
You should know I always think of you
(Think of me)
And you'll be on my mind
(Forever)
Baby till the end of time

I wrote this song so you would think of me
(Are you thinking of me)
When you lay down at night
(When you're laying down at night?)
And you turn out the light
You should know I always think of you
(That I'm always thinking of you)
And you'll be on my mind
Baby 'till the end of time
