"A Friend For Life"

You told me to be quiet
You told me to go away
You acted like i was stupid
You acted like i was not important
But one day i will show you that there's someone
Around to be a friend for me
When i write to you from hollywood you will
Rip it up and you will lie and run and hide
From the truth from the fame
And i will have my friend
At my side the whole time
She belived me
When i said i would be famous
She trusted me
She helped me
She guided me through
The darkness of my world
The light i never saw she said was ok
She told me to be strong
She led my through the darkness she was my Friend for life and down to the ground
