Waking up in the morning laying next to you
I stare at you and I listen to you breathe
I can't imagine me spending my life with someone else
I've got a thousand reasons why my heart makes me believe

[Chorus:]

If you wanna know how much I love you
All the reasons girl that I dream of you
It's easy just to say
Let me count the ways
Girl our love has a silver lining
More than on the stars that we see shinin'
I feel it everyday
So let me count the ways

All the dreams that we're dreamin' baby we can reach
We can find new horizons everyday
We can do it together and we'll always make it through
As long we believe our love will find the way

[Chorus:]

If you wanna know how much I love you
All the reasons girl that I dream of you
It's easy just to say
Let me count the ways
Girl our love has a silver lining
More than on the stars that we see shinin'
I feel it everyday
So let me count the ways

I see visions of forever
Loving you I'll always treasure
We keep getting closer everyday

[Chorus?]

Nananananana

Its easy just to say,
So let me count the ways.
