Hide the virgins, say your prayers
Here come trouble from the cosmic sea
Gouts of blood kill all the squares
It's the Aztec mummy versus murderous me

I'm the god monster from the end of the world
I'm the hothead intruder, I'm the phantom on fire
Switchblade enforcer of the astral swirl
God monsterman, god damn atomic vampire

God monster for your doomsday destination
God monster for your damaged life
God monster for your ruined hallucination
God monster spider in your beehive

I'm the space probe from Venus to the screaming unknown
Top eliminator on a mission for kicks
Boss action guy a psychedelic cyclone
Yeah, a big hunk of love with a bag full of tricks

God monster for your doomsday destination
God monster for your damaged life
God monster for your ruined hallucination
God monster spider in your beehive

I'm the god monster from the end of the world
I'm the god monster from the end of the world
I'm the god monster from the end of the world
God monster from the end of the world

God monster from the end of the world
God monster from the end of the world
God monster from the end of the world
God monster from the end of the world

God monster from the end of the world
God monster from the end of the world
God monster from the end of the world
God monster from the end of the world

God monster from the end of the world

God monster from the end of the world
God monster from the end of the world
God monster from the end of the world

God monster from the end of the world
God monster from the end of the world
God monster from the end of the world

God monster, god monster
God monster, god monster, god monster
