As I sit here alone in a tavern
I can hear her voice soft and low
Then someone dropped a coin in the jukebox
and played an old familiar song

Then tears came to my eyes as I suddenly realized twas a song that reminded me of her and as I sit and cry, someone came to my side and asked me if I lost my best friend

I said no.....
Its just that song
no.....
Its just....
I ain't heard it.....
for so long--

It brings back ole-o-o-o-o memories won't you leave me alone, please?

No...No...Its just that song.....
