Hmmm

I can feel the raindrops slowly falling,
and they're calling for,
they keep calling for my knight in shining armor come and save me, cause I'm drowning in pain..

I've been hurt
by his mistakes,
so come and take me away,
I put him first,
I thought he'd stay,
but he couldn't weather the storm so he left me the rain..

Over time, pictures fade
all that's left are these empty frames, sleepless nights, and stormy days, I've got proof that people change,
and all that's left are these empty frames

Can you hear these teardrops hit my pillow?
They keep falling cause I kept falling for your dozen thorny roses, now I'm bleeding,
and I'm lonely again..

now I'm hurt
it's my mistake,
I should have known right away,

I put him first,
I thought he'd stay,
so he left me the rain..

sleepless nights, and stormy days,
I've got proof that people change, long after the smiles all fade away, all this endless pain, all this empty space..

sleepless nights, and stormy days,
over time, pictures fade,

over time, pictures fade,
all that's left are these empty frames,
sleepless nights, and stormy days,

and all that's left are these empty frames,
sleepless nights, and stormy days,
