Verse 1:

Put your pictures away,

Anything that might bring up,

Memories of the days and the nights we spent in love,

You were my favorite song,

Baby tell me why we had to turn the radio off

Girl I aint tripping on you

I'm just fine

You hardly ever even cross my mind

Even though a blind man could look in my face and just know that that's a lie

I'm barely treading water saying I'm alright

Chorus:

Cuz I can't stop crying

And I can't stop asking why

But I can't stop lying

And if you ask me I deny

That I can't stop crying

On the outside I'm alright

But I'm dying on the inside

Verse 2:

Saw you out yesterday

And I knew that you saw me

You was with your new man

And I was with some random peeps

Suddenly we caught eyes

And I looked away before it got too hard to breathe

Girl I aint tripping on you

I'm just fine

You hardly ever even cross my mind

Even though a blind man could look in my face and just
know that that's a lie

I'm barely treading water saying I'm alright

Chorus (2x):

Cuz I can't stop crying

And I can't stop asking why

But I can't stop lying

And if you ask me I deny

That I can't stop crying

On the outside I'm alright

But I'm dying on the inside

Girl I aint tripping on you

I'm just fine

I don't even think about you babe

Even though a blind man could look in my face and just
know that that's a lie

I'm barely treading water saying I'm alright

Cuz I can't stop crying

And I can't stop asking why

But I can't stop lying

And if you ask me I deny

That I can't stop crying

On the outside I'm alright

But I'm dying on the inside

I'm dyingâ€¦

Girl you're killing meâ€¦

Dying on the insideâ€¦

Dying on the insideâ€¦

Killing me, killing me babe
