"My Star"

[Verse 1:]

Had to fall, so I could get up,
Had to die, to be reborn,
Had to win, to find my new beginning,
I know the way now

[Bridge:]

Close my eyes, to truly see you,
Tune out the world, to clearly hear,
Force the star, to find the strength to start this new day,
You light my way

[Chorus:]

When I look up in the sky, you're so beautiful, shining
And if ever I'm in loss want you there to, shine me the way
When I look up in the sky you're so beautiful, shining
You are my star (you're my star)

[Verse 2:]

I feel your warmth, so I can hug you
I feel your smile, though I can't see your face
I think of you and I feel so protected
I know the way now

[Bridge:]

I close my eyes, to truly see you,
Tune out the world, to clearly hear,
Force the star, to find the strength to start this new
day,
You light my way

[Chorus:]

When I look up in the sky, you're so beautiful, shining
And if ever I'm in loss want you there to, shine me the
way
When I look up in the sky you're so beautiful, shining
You are my star (you're my star)

[Verse 3:]

Never knew that losing you would be,
The thing that would help me find me,
But I know you're smiling down on me,
Constantly

[Chorus:]

Oh, when I look up in the sky, you're so beautiful, shining
And if ever I'm in loss want you there to, shine me the
way
When I look up in the sky you're so beautiful, shining
You are, you are, you are my star, oh

When I look up in the sky, you're so beautiful, shining
And if ever I'm in lust want you there to, shine me the way
When I look up in the sky you're so beautiful, shining
You are my star, my star, my star
