Someone point me in the right direction
Tell me where's the nearest piece of mind?
I'm going crazy

Knight in shining armor in the distance
He sees the angel threatening my life
Why won't he save me?

All I want is somebody to give a damn
Notice that I'm struggling and lend a hand
They say
Everybody needs someone to understand
Well damnit that includes me too

And all I want is someone to be there for me
Someone that genuinely cares
But I'm just dreaming
It's like I'm silently screaming

Even though I'm totally surrounded
I feel like I'm in here by myself

How about you do it cuz you love me?
Not cuz you want something in return
Is that so crazy?
Crazy

In the middle of the sea of helpless
But see, I never learned how to swim
Somebody save me
Somebody save me

All I want is somebody to give a damn
Notice that I'm struggling and lend a hand
They say

Everybody needs someone to understand
Well damnit that includes me too

And all I want is someone to be there for me
Someone that genuinely cares
But I'm just dreaming

It's like I'm silently screaming

Somebody to catch me when I fall
Somebody to help me through it all
Someone I can trust
Tell me if I'm asking too much

All I want is somebody to give a damn
Notice that I'm struggling and lend a hand
They say
Everybody needs someone to understand
Well damnit that includes me too

All I want is someone to be there for me
Someone that I can genuinely trust
But I'm just dreaming
It's like I'm silently screaming

Even though I'm totally surrounded

Silently screaming

I feel like I'm in here by myself

Silently screaming
