You are the one reason why ive been stressin
How can someone be a curse and a blessing
All in the same damn week
This haunting get enough of me its killing me, woah
You can be sweeter than sweet with my feelings
Then turn around and be mean as a demon Dont know what to do, i swear sometimes i think there might be two of you, woah, yeah

(Tonight) I need to get you off of my brain
(Tonight) I need to get out and do my thang
(Tonight) thinking about you, baby i aint
So you could call me stressing gonna have to leave a message

Cause my cellphones off and the musics loud
I aint tryin to hear what youre talking bout
So you can tell it to my voicemail (tell it to my voicemail)
Oh you can tell it to my voicemail (tell it to my voicemail)
Blow me up, baby all you like
All im thinkin bout is having fun tonight
So you can tell it to my voicemail (tell it to my voicemail)
voicemail)

Im gonna put on that dress that you dont like (Oh)
Im gonna pick up my homegirl you dont like
And we're making moves
Were probably gonna do some things you won't like too, woah
Dont get me wrong I aint gon' disrespect myself
I got a man and i dont want no one else
But im gonna have a good time
Ill call you up tomorrow, baby you'll be fine
But you will know

(Tonight) I need to get you out of my brain
(Tonight) I need to get out and do my thang

(Tonight) thinking about you, baby i aint
So you if call me stressing gonna have to leave a
