its a new dey
where did she go-o-o-o i dont know, i dont know (Dey)

she's fed up again i guess i messed up again or sped up again i shoulda of fest up again like boo she's just a friend and i'm a man i dont pretend, why would i waste my time with a 9 i got a 10 when im out im working boo when im home im working you and spark the green when you blue gurl you know how i do i crack a joke or two then give you a poke or two it takes a joke or two to do what i'm supposed to do hoping im good for you pull up a chair i really care bab i want you here i need you, right next to me flex with me back and forth text wit me more then just sex with me girl i need you you you are my destiny deep inside my chest wit me secret on my rest c me girl i need you you and all the things that you do u keep running away when im looking for you

(Notch - Chorus)

where did she go (where did she go) she's running away
she got to know (she's got to know) i need her to stay
she's running away
i need here now, every day (god i need her now everyday)(Lumidee) listen i've been right here held you done all these years all the fussing and fighting the blood sweat and tears while u build ur career and yea i played the back never in it for the money always had my own stacks never made u feel trapped never ever did i slack if u was goin on tour i would have your bags packed listen and nobody could ever say im out there crazy whether u was home or gone i was still your lady so much more than a woman i would run them routes always right by ur side ready to thug it out always showing up wit class for what more can u ask and if i did the math ima owe , i'm on fire and put up wit you lies and all your little slides but my love was so strong so i held it all inside and i shouda been i coulda been your one and only but stray so many times boy you left me lonely

shes running away
shes got to know (she's got to know)
i need her to stay
shes running away
i need her now everyday (god i need her now everyday)
