All by herself she walks around,
The sun is up she's looking down
Her lonely tears they hit the ground
And start a fire
He took her heart
He took her smile
And simply knew in the pile of hearts
That he broken before he ever tried her
I sit back there and watch it all
I witness every tear drop fall it's almost like
She's getting smaller every time she cries
I just can't stand to see her tears
And so before she disappears
I think I'm gonna call her overhear
And â€¦

Chorus

Girl you are beautiful
Don't let him take that form you
Girl you got to know
Come here and let me show you

Let me ease your mind
Put you back in the sky
Baby you're a star don't let him dull your shine
He isn't worth your tears so baby dry your eyes
Just know that you're a star don't let him dull your shine
Don't let him
Him dull your shine

She is so special
Worth so much more
Than what she know
Cause he never told her
And so she cries
He said goodbye
But baby I am gonna be the one
To hold you down
You'll never gonna hurt again
Just wanna see you smile right now

Stand up and keep on shining
Baby if you need

Chorus
