The freeway is filling up as the sun is coming up
And I, I will weep no more
And my love was filling up
Her flesh formed a cup
And I, I will weep no more

And everything that lays in scatter
From all of last night's chatter
And I, I will weep no more
The smoke that's still in turn
From the cigarette that burns
And I, I will weep no more

So let the memories just be
Like the leaves around the trees
And I, I will weep no more
I, I will weep no more

And when ugly sight
Means nothing to the blind
I, I will weep no more
And when our last fight
It seems utterly unkind
I, I will weep no more

And when the blood slows down
To a deep black sound
I, I will weep no more
And when the cheated groom
Well he empties like the room
I, I will weep no more

I, I will weep no more ...

And when these tired eyes
Can only see to the inside
I, I will weep no more
And when my careless tongue
Speaks of nothing and no one
I said that I, I will weep no more

And when I turn away from you
And there's nothing to improve
Oh I, I will weep no more
So let recklessness abide
To everything we cannot hide
'cause I, I will weep, I will weep no more

I, I will weep no more
I, oh I will weep, I will weep no more
