Encore Medley

1. We Need Some Light

Some people think
Think they have none
They might as well stay down
Running in circles
Like bulls in a ring
'Til the sword finds it's way down

While the creep beats the rap on appeal
And the cop who can't stop
Shows the kids how to steal

And we all need some light now
We all need some light now
Yes, we all need some light now
Turn on your light
And wash the darkness away

Hey you on the brink
Waiting to fall
To become human surplus
The movie's still shooting
You might still get the roll
And man it's all just a circus

But the clown left town long ago
Maybe he'll come back and give us a show

And we all need some light now
We all need some light now
Yes, we all need some light now
Turn on your light
and wash the darkness away

2. Open Wide The Flood Gates

SNOW:
Red forest green

As you stand at the waterfall
And there's no in between
You go back or you trust the fall

And the man says that'll be forty-five
And the best of your mind's crying
'take the dive'

And open wide the flood gates
Let love take your soul
Open wide the flood gates
'Til there's so much you overflow

Out of the blue
And into uncertainty
And since you are a child
You just want some kind of security

But the desert will always be hot and dry
Until the cool water comes rushing by

Open wide the flood gates
Let love take your soul
Open wide the flood gates
'Til there's so much you overflow
Let love fed the gate down
Let it wash away the past
Open wide the flood gates

3. Solitary Soul

THE HOMELESS:
I've been here since long ago waiting for the end
I don't need to have a home but I could use a friend

So many people they don't give a damn
They look away when they see what I am
I've been like half a man but I could be whole
Won't you befriend this solitary soul

Got a lot of breezes left to blow
Where I'm going I don't know
Got a lot of heartache I don't show
What it's like you'll never know
To be the solitary soul

I've been here since long ago buried in my tears
Feels like I've walked alone for a thousand years

So many people they don't give a damn
They look away when they see what I am

I've been like half a man but I could be whole
I know I could be whole
Won't you befriend this solitary soul

Got a lot of breezes left to blow
Where I'm going I don't know
Got a lot of heartache I don't show
What it's like you'll never know

Got a lot of breezes left to blow
Where I'm going I don't know
Got a lot of heartache I don't show
What it's like you'll never know
To be the solitary soul

SNOW AND COMPANY:

I see your heart
I know what you've been through
I know you
Come be a part
You know you belong here
So dry your tears because

Love beyond words - Can fill your heart
Love beyond words - You'll feel a part
Love beyond words - You won't be alone anymore

I see your heart
I know what you've been through
I know you
Come be a part
You know you belong here
So dry your tears and let

Love beyond words - Can fill your heart
Love beyond words - You'll feel a part
Love beyond words - And you won't feel alone anymore

Solo

4. Wind At My Back

THE HOMELESS:

How can you be
Like a sky stretched out before me
And the world is turning your way
Even darkness is better this way

Oh, Can it be true
That it all comes rushing from you
I believe it

When my resistance is gone
And there's nothing that I can lean on
Oh oo

You are the wind at my back
Come on now
You give what I lack
You're the jewel in my hand
You're like rain on dry land

You're the focus the beam
You're realities dream
You're the blue in my black
You're the wind at my back

All of the above
I know that song
I'll have the lot for my love
And as we're becoming somehow
As we're changing the future to now

I just want to live
In the place that you have to give
Oh, I'll let the heat beat me down
Until the water
Oh the cool water comes down

You are the wind at my back
Yes you are
You give what I lack
Yes you are
You're the jewel in my hand
Oh Lord I appreciate it
You're like rain on dry land

You're the focus the beam
Thank you all
You're realities dream
You're the blue in my black
You're the wind at my back

You are the wind at my back
Yes you are
You give what I lack
Can you feel it?
You're the jewel in my hand
Can you feel it?
You're like rain on dry land

And my soul has been kissed
Just because you exist

You're the dream that's a fact
You're the wind at my back

Solo

You are the wind at my back
Yes you are
You give what I lack
You're the jewel in my hand
You're like rain on dry land

And my soul has been kissed
Just because you exist
You're the dream that's a fact
You're the wind at my back
