Oh Lord my God,
You were there when things were hard
Oh Lord my God,
hear the words I say
You will not break,
If my ways are mine that's my mistake
Oh Lord my God,
Come and feel the need.

And You are
You are the tongues of Angels,
(And You are) You are the winds of time
And You are
The soul that feeds my freedom,
And You are
The dream that never dies.

Oh Lord my God,
You walk this worldly boulevard
So a joke like me might sin one day.

And You are
The realm above all nations,
And You are
The oceans open wide
And You are
The ultimate musician,
And You are
The life within my eyes.
And You are
You are the tongues of Angels,
And You are
The voice that guides my soul.
And You are
The pain alleviated,
And You are
You are the only goal.

And You are

Like the light of man,

We count the grains of sand.
Form a deeper connection.
Shift today for night,
Making fresh the tide.
There's no greater affection.

'Cause You are,
You are the tongues of Angels,
And You are
You are the winds of time.
And You are
The soul that feeds my freedom,
And You are
And You are
You are so magnified.
You are the wealth of wisdom,
And You are
The voice that guides my soul.
And You are
The pain alleviated,
And You are
Your love is my only goal.

Ooh, You are my soul.
