Why did you lose your faith and your pride?
Why did you fail your way of life?
Why did you change to the wrong side?
Oh why did you change your mind?
Tell me kindly, kindly things.
But help me when I feel alone.

Do you know how low you can get?
Do you feel the pain in your hand?
Do you fight against walls you had built?
Oh do you strike against feelings you kill?
Tell me kindly, kindly things.
But help me when I feel alone.

Ref:
Just say no to false feelings, miserable is the ending.
There are better things in life.
Hey, just say no.
Just say no to what they're saying.

Don't trust in the things they're praying.
There are better things in life.
Hey, just say no.
Now, stop the madness and dependence that is driving you insane.
It's a deadly game you're playing, still try to leave it if you can.
Just say no to false feelings. Just say no, please just say no.
There are better things in life. Just say no.

Why to live on, why to die?
Why to live without a friend?
Why to die much too young?
The spoon and the needle, one-way to the end.
Tell me kindly, kindly things.
But help me when I feel alone.
