Night's fallen down on this land
Hopes melt away
Like dust in my hand
All the promise a lie
Hearings decay
Like tears in my eyes
Blinded disfigured unanswered cries
There is no place to hide
Innocent children must die
Insanity rules
blood paints the sky
Senseless dictate their minds
They will cry tomorrow
They ain't got no time

Blinded disfigured - unanswered cries
There is no place to hide
Ref:
Ruins They will cry tomorrow
Ruins (Forgive me)

The end of the rainbow so close
A treasure in sight
But so far away
Try to catch a dream
But they'll cry tomorrow
They ain't got no time

Blinded disfigured unanswered cries
There is no place to hide

Ref:
Ruins They will cry tomorrow
Ruins Forgive me

Blinded disfigured unanswered cries
There is no place to hide

Ref: 2x
