Verse one

All in vain you stand your ground
To defend light, power,
White gates of hope.
Now we rush, penetrate.
Your blood is ours.

Pre-Chorus

Daylight's gone,
Surrender,
Bow to us, your masters

Verse Two

Down your walls, no more sustained,
You have lost.
Now down your knees, you can't run.
Blinded your eyes by flames of all hell.
We've taken your pride.

Pre-Chorus

Daylight's gone
Surrender
Bow to us
Your masters

Verse Three

This rebel can now only be described as:
"Our attack of complete blasphemy"
We reign now over all.
We own all paradise!
