Verse One

Mounted horsemen galloping,
Powdered cannons firing,
Paint this picture in my mind.
My past remembered.
Fallen comrades screaming,
Musket gunshots deffening,
This dreams so real to me.
The days of war revisited.

Chorus

Strung out from war.
They all died.
Slayn down on frontlines.

Verse Two

Mental scars not healing,
Sanity depleating.
Memories now scar me,
I could not avenge them.
Now I live life in sorrow,
Though days of war are over.
Still, nightmares haunt the night.
Visions of the frontlines.
