Chorus

For eternity we set sail.
Raping, pillaging, getting our fill.
Back from the dead to kill.
For our hearts are hard as steel.

Bridge

We're the reveries of the fallen,
Sailing the never-ending seas.
Gather them all, put them inside,
Only then will our souls be free.

Chorus

For eternity we set sail.
Raping, pillaging, getting our fill.
Back from the dead to kill.
For our hearts are hard as steel.

Your gold or your life.
