Once I lost you twice you left me
Three times heart ace the last time mistake

Dont wanna show this pain
And all this time in vain
You turned and walked away
And I am stukk here crying
Oh baby cant you see that you belong to me
But you dont care at all
If left alone Im dying

Im tiered of waking up
Sick of you being gone
Im tiered of waking up
And I dont know

I do anything for you youre in my vision
I got nothing else to do lost my direction
I cant face another day my chances wasted
Now youre a million miles away
Im counting my stars

If I could count on you
I would know what to do
The next days would become what both of us were dreamin
no matter what it seems
I wont give up my dreams
So much we could achive
but bridges burnt between us

Im tiered of waking up
Sick of you being gone
Im tiered of waking up
And I dont know

I do anything for you youre in my vision
I got nothing else to do lost my direction
I cant face another day my chances wasted
Now youre a million miles away
Im counting my stars

I do anything for you you're in my vision
I got nothing else to do lost my direction
I can't face another day my chances wasted
Now you're a million miles away
I'm counting my stars
I'm counting my stars
I'm counting my stars

Once I lost you twice you left me
Three times heart aches the last time mistake
