I won't follow you, I won't be the same, it's time to rebel against you in order to get away. I'm sorry to say, I never liked you from the start so please tell the truth, cause, I'm no believer, anything you say won't effect me, now anything you do... don't forget, this face divided my the torment of your life, dissolved by a better future, not taken seriously... for what I wanted... a better life... that's all I wanted, now I will fight you till I die, I don't know you, I regret the day I met you, I will fight you, divided by the fact I know your face, misguided, mistreated.
