breathe with your heart, sink in the cyan waves now face the truth, god is an imbecile slow beating thoughts carry my eyes as they drift from today, flying to no-where's end hurry, shadows are building aloud carry my life in your eye, drink from my dirth touch the end, just to begin again suffer the hand, light of redemption's sand crimson hello's, joy of a baby's cry bearing a hope, enough to project a smile now I walk, now I see all the answers in your eyes human I've become, naked I am born bound to face the horrors of the world I'm alive, I'm alive

I'm alone, I'm alone
