I hear, i see the people fall down at your feet
To look to you, to feel, to feed
I watch, i fear how empty we've become
To feast on what a dog would leave

(chorus)

Famous envy
Envy the famous
Integrity left you, can you blame it?
Two faced friendly
What would you sell to be famous
Here's your trophy, come and claim it

I sense, i taste the falseness that you put on for me
How deeply buried is the reality
What will you be if you become as they are?
You'll be a nothing, 'cause a man can not be a star

(chorus)

Can i be more famoser
Please make me more famoser
Can i be more famoser
Even more famoser

Make me even more famoser than you, with the hardest core of all
To the very top, where i can start my fall
Back down to the ground where it all began
The pain of it all, being real again

(chorus)

Approval of man, an empty trap
The corporate perspective, it makes me laugh
Latest sensation, fool of the week
Respect undeserved with a real heavy beat

(chorus)
