Title: If there were no dreams

-----
If there were no dreams
And there were no dreamers
And how could I dream you up
You're still a mystery to me

The way that we love
The life that we're leading
I don't wanna give you up
Whatever I'll have to do, I'll do

Put a mountain there and I'll tear it down
If it's much too high then I'll go around
I won't stop for anyone or anything
And I'd love you even if there were no dreams

If there were no dreams
How could we be lovers
And how could I need you so
The reasons clear to even me

I know that it's right
You don't need to wonder
If you're up against that wall
I'm gonna be up against it too

If a mountain's there we can tear it down
If it's much too high we'll just go around
We won't stop for anyone or anything
We'd be lovers even if there were no dreams

Yes we would
Lovers even if there were no dreams
