No words could say
How I love you.
No words could be as true.
I've looked through books
And read through dictionaries,
But I've found
No words for you.

No words
No words
No words
Oh no
Oh no

No words can define
What I'm feeling
When I feel close to you.
No words can bring
That magic kind of healing
Just as much
As your touch can do.

No words
No words
No words
Oh no
Oh no
No words

Well,
I'll admit
There may be one or two
That danced around in my head,
But words that talk
About me and you
Are better felt than said.

There are no words
That can tell our story.
They just get in the way.
It's all about the feelings
That you're feeling,

Not about the words
That you say.

No words
No words
No words
Oh no
Oh no
No words

Well, I'll admit
There may be one or two
Been swimmin'
'Round in my head,
But what they say
About me and you
Is better felt than said.

There are no words
That can solve
Life's mystery
Or explain God's Eternal plan.
We only know enough
To ask the questions,
Not enough to understand.

No words
No words
No words

Oh no

No words
No words
No words

Oh no
Oh no
No words
