Chalk and Cheese

My eyes are open, what do I see?
I see creation to some degree
The sun and moon, day and night
Big and small, wrong and right

Chalk and cheese, water and wine
I think our love needs a little more time
Time for each other, time to discover
That we got a lot in common
But it just takes time

I see beauty and decay
Pretty ladies makin' hay
Little babies, sad old men
It's been the same since God knows when

Chalk and cheese, water and wine
I think our love needs a little more time
Time for each other, time to discover
That we got a lot in common
But it just takes time

People come and people go
The world is round, as we all know
But what shape is Harmony?
How wide the space 'tween you and me?

Chalk and cheese, water and wine
I think our love needs a little more time
Time for each other, time to discover
That we got a lot in common
But it just takes time

Chalk and cheese, water and wine
I think our love needs a little more time
Time for each other, time to discover
That we got a lot in common
But it just takes time
