Day In The Country

(AKA "Old Fashioned Day in the Country" AKA "Just an Old Fashioned Day in the Country" AKA whatever else Neil calls it in the future)

Just an old fashioned day in the country
Under heavenly skies of blue
Just an old fashioned day in the country
With nothing better to do

Just an old fashioned day in the country
Sunlight sparkling through the trees
Just an old fashioned day in the country
Doing anything we please

There's no need to worry about a single thing
A snail is on the thorn, the lark is on the wing

Just an old fashioned day in the country where the dandelions tell the time
Just an old fashioned day in the country
With old fashioned hills to climb
