Disillusioned

Life is illusion
Ideas in the mind, jumping to conclusions
Seeing is believing
Ideas in the mind can be so deceiving
As time goes by
and the seasons change I cry

I'm disillusioned, disillusioned
My eyes no longer play tricks on me
I'm disillusioned, disillusioned
The more I look the less I see
Oh yeah the more I look, the less I want to see
The more I look the less I want to see

Seems like only yesterday
My eyes were open wide
Sometimes I was enchanted
Other times just mystified
Once I had a vision but it don't mean a thing
In the land of the blinded, the one-eyed man is king
He leads, the dance
Honi soit qui mal y pense

I'm disillusioned, disillusioned
My eyes no longer play tricks on me
I'm disillusioned, disillusioned
The more I look the less I see

For life is illusion
Ideas in the mind, jumping to conclusions
Seeing is believing
Ideas in the mind can be so deceiving

As time goes by
and the seasons change I cry
