I give myself to you
For I know
I've so much to give
Oh ho
And when I'm feeling this way
There's just one thing I gotta say
Believe me darlin'
Believe me
I'm incredible
Whenever life becomes inedible
You know you can rely on me
To provide an alternative recipe

Innocent moments of boredom can corrupt you
There are so many bestial things to get up to
The world is a manifestation of you and me
Every star in the sky, every drop in the sea

Open your eyes to the energy of ugliness
It's the same thing as beauty, all things being equal
It's no surprise then you feel full of emptiness
The pattern of life is so full of detail

Let me explain the inexplicable
Then let me solve the inextricable
Then when I'm through, all the world will see
I've given myself to me.
