Janitor's Kids

What's that you're playing? Neil and Gwen Taylor perform this in Rutland Weekend Television
Oh, just a piano.
I like you, you're kinda cute!
Oh, I'm just an ordinary fellow.
Me too. We were made for each other!
Hang it off, why pretend?

We're just the janitor's kids
Playin' on the penthouse floor
We know we shouldn't be here but
We done it many times before

We're just the janitor's kids
Pretending to be millionaires
Sipping champagne glasses
And sitting in expensive chairs

Knee deep in carpet with the help of Daddy's key Hope he doesn't get the sack on account of you and me

We're up in paradise
High above the foyer
We're just the janitor's kids
Playin' on the penthouse floor

Hey, haven't I seen you someplace before?
It's a small world!
Monte Carlo?
Saint Moritz!
Of course, you were the one who came out of the cake!
And you were selling snowballs!

We're up in paradise
High above the foyer
We're just the janitor's kids
Playin' on the penthouse floor
