Just Another Story

Take any page from a book
Take a good look
What do you see?
Not just the words
It's like a thousand little people

Somebody help me with this story
Why does it always end the same?
Everybody feeling sorry
Everybody saying, "It's a shame."

Neil in Booktower And as for those who say, "Why worry?
It's just a story anyway."
But it's just another story
Because it happened far away

Take the sound of a young mother crying
The little baby in her arms slowly dying
It's like a thousand violin strings

Somebody help me with this story
Why does it always end the same?
Everybody feeling sorry
Everybody saying, "It's a shame."

And as for those who say, "Why worry?"
Why should they worry anyway?
When it's just another story
Just another story
Just another story
Because it happened far away
