Lead Us

You follow every impulse
With remarkable control
Your movements are precise
A marvel to us all
You dominate the skyline
Yet no one knows your shape
You point the way so clearly
Yet no one can escape
Lead us
We shall follow
We shall follow you

Whatever quick reaction
Your intuition makes
Your method is precise
However long it takes
And so we all must follow
Each time you make your move
Though the truth is hard to swallow
Even harder to disprove

Lead us
We shall follow
We shall follow you

Though the way is incomplete
Though your chariot stands still
We shall not admit defeat
We shall not delay the kill

Ah lead us
We shall follow
We shall follow you
Oh lead us
We shall follow
We shall follow you
