God's own country tall in the saddle on a billboard
Cowboy smoking man-sized tipped cigarette Someone with a push chair by the launderette
Early closing day
And there's nowhere to go but the Montana Cafe

Supermarket trolley by a keep-left sign
On a traffic island double yellow line

Screwed up school kids' bubblegum wrappers at the bus stop
Special offer coupons up to three pence off
Someone on the corner with a nasty cough
Early closing day
And there's nowhere to go but the Montana Cafe
mmmm mmm, mmmm mmm
mmmm mmm, mmmm mmm

Nympho girls and erotica showing at the Roxy Double-X feature late show Saturday night
Someone at the crossing looking left and right

Early closing day
And there's nowhere to go but the Montana Cafe

Continental lorry going on its way
Aerosol graffiti
'City Rule OK'...
