No this is not the first time
Or the last time we shall meet
It's hard to understand the circumstances
And so easy to be indiscreet
Of all the chances we are given
Which one can we take?
And after all the indecision
Do we have a choice to make?

Ahhhhh Ahhhhh
Ahhhhh Ahhhhh

I've seen it all before
The chaos and the lore
All we need is someone
To even up the score
Take away the day and take away the night
I'll show you a man who's looking for a fight
Ever wonder why so many break the rules ?
Ever had to try to understand fools?
In pursuit of pleasure there's many a decoy
And oh how we treasure the things we can enjoy

No this is not the first time not the first time
Or the last time we shall meet
It's hard to understand the circumstances
And so easy to be indiscreet
Of all the chances we are given
Which one can we take?
And after all the indecision
Do we have a choice to make?
Do we have a choice to make?
