With A Girl Like You

Shoot me down in flames if I should tell a lie Cross my heart I promise that it's true I've been in love so many times before but never with a girl like you priceless
With a girl like you to hold and be beside
With a girl like you to fill my heart with pride and joy

With a girl like you
I know where I belong
With a girl like you
I know I can be strong, you know
I won't bring you any pain
I won't run around again
There'll be nothing to explain
with a girl like you

You know
I won't bring you any pain
I won't run around again
There'll be nothing to explain
with a girl like you
