There's a guardian angel watching over you, yeah
Better mind your ways just might leave on you
In the darkness who else is really with you?
Only you alone got to live with you all the time

When there's no more time and nothin' left to do
Who will hear you? Who will hear your heart?
Your guardian angel

Who are these kindred spirits?
Would you know them if they stood in front of you?
From below the loneliness eats at you
Try the telephone someone might listen for a while

When there's no more time and nothin' left to do

Who will hear you? Who will hear your heart?
Your guardian angel

When a passing stranger looks away from you
An uneasy feelin' starts comin' over you
There's somebody watching somewhere
Maybe today it's you comes a desperate urge to run
Guardian angel where are you?

When there's no more time and nothin' left to do
Who will hear you? Who will hear your heart?
Your guardian angel yeah
